Professional Experience

Gregory Wynn, a native of Atlanta, amassed more than two decades of experience in the commercial and building industry, working with his father. Gregory has been involved with many projects that contribute to molding and shaping the growing Atlanta community in many ways. Projects include schools, churches, restaurants, as well as single-family housing. Completing a job with quality is his personal motto. While under his father's tutelage, he professionally matures as a commercial developer and thus translating this knowledge well into his own business venture. As President and Senior Project Manager, he is responsible for monitoring the progress of each project, ensuring they are completed to the customer's specifications. Gregory also is responsible for building and managing relationships with prime contractors and capable subcontractors for the overall performance of each project.

Gregory is a hands-on company operator who works to see that every project is completed in a timely manner and on budget. Paying attention to both corporate and field details will allow for the company to consistently exceed owner expectations and operational goals.

With his relationships and experience Gregory is positioning the company as one of the leading commercial and residential contractors in the City of Atlanta.
